Members of the Board of Directors shall be appointed by a majority of the votes cast at an Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting.

In the event of one or more vacancies, the Board of Directors may appoint temporary members before the next General Shareholders’ Meeting.

Temporary appointments made by the Board of Directors are subject to ratification by the next Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting. A member appointed to replace another shall stay in office only for the remaining term of his/her predecessor.

2. Members of the Board of Directors shall be appointed for a four-year term of office that may be renewed. The duties of a director terminate at the end of the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting convened to approve the Company’s financial statements for the preceding fiscal year and held in the year during which his/her term of office expires. Notwithstanding the above, in order to provide for a staggered renewal of the Board, the members of the first Board of Directors who would have served as members of the Supervisory Board of the Company under its former governance structure until April 29, 2010, and who would have been appointed as directors by the Ordinary Shareholders’ Meeting, would serve as directors for a duration equal to the remaining duration of their term of office as Supervisory Board’s member, i.e. one, two, three or four years.

In the event the Board of Directors was to be replaced in its entirety, half of the members, rounded to the nearest lower number if need be, would have a two-year term of office. The other members would have a four-year term of office. An order of exit shall be determined by random-drawing performed during a Board meeting.

3. An individual aged seventy or older may be appointed or reappointed to the Board of Directors exclusively for a two-year term of office. His/her term of office can be renewed.

When the permanent representative of a legal entity member of the Board of Directors reaches seventy-year old, the legal entity is deemed to have resigned automatically unless it designates a new representative within three months.

B - Dismissal

Members of the Board of Directors may be dismissed at any time upon decision of the Ordinary Shareholder's Meeting.

C - Appointment of an employee shareholder representative to the Board of Directors

1. Subject to legal conditions being met, a member of the Board of Directors who represents employee shareholders shall be appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with applicable regulations and these Bylaws.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the employee shareholder representative ceases to be employed by the Company, a company or an inter-company partnership affiliated with AXA within the meaning of Article L.225-180 of the French Commercial Code, the term of office will end and he/she will be deemed to have resigned automatically.
3. Candidates for the employee shareholder representative seat on the Board of Directors shall be nominated according to the procedures set forth below:
 - a) If the voting rights attached to shares held by the employees are exercised on their behalf by the members of the supervisory board of a mutual fund, this board may nominate two candidates at most.

If there are several mutual funds, the Executive Management may regroup on the one hand the supervisory boards of funds that hold the assets of AXA employee shareholders in France, and, on the other hand the supervisory boards of funds that hold the assets of AXA employee shareholders in countries other than France. Each grouping of funds may nominate two candidates at most.

- b) If the voting rights attached to shares held by employees, even via a mutual fund, are directly exercised by the employees, the candidates for the seat on the Board of Directors shall be appointed in the conditions described below.

The consultation of employee shareholders may be carried out using any technical means that guarantees reliability of vote, including by way of electronic or mail voting. Each employee has as many votes as shares held, either directly or indirectly, including via units held in a mutual fund with individual exercise of voting rights.

The candidates having received more than 2% of the votes cast in the consultation of employee shareholders shall be submitted to a vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

- c) Any candidate must stand with a substitute. The substitute shall replace the candidate with whom he/she has been appointed following the procedures described in paragraphs 3.a) and 3.b) above when the candidate definitely terminates his/her term of office. In this case, the substitute will replace the candidate for the remaining duration of his/her term of office, subject to an appointment by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting.
4. With respect to paragraph 3.a) above, the Executive Management shall, prior to the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, formally request that the supervisory boards of the relevant mutual funds nominate one or several candidates.

With respect to paragraph 3.b) above, the Executive Management shall, prior to the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, determine the procedures for consulting employee shareholders who directly exercise their voting rights in order to appoint one or several candidates.

5. Unless otherwise specified by applicable laws and regulations or these Bylaws, the Executive Management shall determine the terms and conditions for the nomination of the candidates and their respective substitutes. This includes the conditions pertaining to the timetable of nomination.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall determine the terms and conditions for the appointment of authorized representatives of employee shareholders at the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting.

6. For each of the procedures described in paragraphs 3.a) and 3.b), minutes of the proceedings, stating the number of votes cast for each candidate, as well as a list of all duly nominated candidates shall be drawn up.

The list of candidates shall appear in the notice of the General Shareholders' Meeting convened to appoint the member of the Board of Directors representing the employee shareholders.

7. The member of the Board of Directors representing the employee shareholders shall be appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the same quorum and majority requirements pertaining to the appointment of any member of the Board of Directors.

This member of the Board of Directors shall not be taken into account when determining the minimum and maximum numbers of Board members pursuant to Article L.225-17 of the French Commercial Code.

8. In the event of definitive termination, in the course of his/her term of office, of the employee shareholders representative's functions to the Board of Directors, the appointment of his/her substitute shall be submitted to the approval of the very next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting. The substitute is appointed for the remaining term of office of the Board member he/she replaces. In the event of the substitute's definitive incapacity, the nomination of the candidates for the seat on the Board of Directors shall follow the same procedures as those indicated hereinabove, at the latest prior the very next Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting or, if this meeting is held less than four months from the vacancy, prior to the following Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting. The new employee shareholders representative to the Board of Directors shall be appointed to serve a four-year term of office.

In the period of time leading up to the appointment of the employee shareholders representative to the Board of Directors, the Board may continue to hold meetings and conduct business as usual.

9. When the report annually submitted by the Board of Directors to the Shareholders' Meeting pursuant to Article L.225-102 of the French Commercial Code reveals that the percentage of the Company's share capital held by the employee shareholders has fallen below 3% of the total share capital, the term of office of the employee shareholder representative to the Board of Directors shall terminate at the end of such Meeting.

When the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting exceeds twelve, a second director representing the employees is appointed by the European Works Council (comité d'entreprise européen).

When the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, initially greater than twelve, drops to twelve or less, the term of office of the second director representing the employees appointed by the European Works Council (comité d'entreprise européen) shall run up to its end.

The meetings and resolutions of the Board of Directors shall remain valid should no director(s) representing the employees be designated pursuant to the law and the Bylaws.

In the event that the obligation to appoint one or more directors to represent the employees under Article L.225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code lapses, the term(s) of office of the director(s) representing the employees shall terminate at the earliest of (a) his/her term of office or (b) following the Board of Directors' meeting during which the Board acknowledges that the Company no longer falls within the scope of the law.
4. Should a position of director representing the employees become vacant for any reason, his/her substitute shall be designated following the same terms as the director whose position became vacant and shall keep this position for the remaining of his/her predecessor's term of office. The Board of Directors validly meets and deliberates until a substitute is designated.
5. Directors representing the employees are not included in the calculation of the minimum and maximum number of members of the Board of Directors, as provided by Article L.225-17 of the French Commercial Code, nor for the application of the first paragraph of Article L.225-18-1 of the French Commercial Code.
