REGULATED INFORMATION RELEASE

Paris, August 16, 2007

Filing of the half year financial report

AXA announces the filing today on AXA's website of its half year financial report.

The document includes the half year consolidated financial statement, the half year activity report, the statement of the person responsible for investor information as well as the report of Statutory Auditors on the half year consolidated financial statement.

The half year financial report can be viewed on AXA's website at the following address: www.axa.com, Investor Relations / half year financial reports section.