INFORMATION NOTICE OF GIE AXA / AXA SA / GIE AXA UNIVERSITE ON THE PROTECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA AS PROVIDERS/ CONSULTANTS

AXA respects your privacy and ensures that all the personal data it handles is processed in accordance with best confidentiality practices and the applicable laws on data protection, and notably the European Union General Data Protection Regulation n°2016/679 (GDPR). The objective of this Information Notice is to inform you about the processing of your personal data if you are acting as a service provider on behalf of AXA, including a service on a fee-for-service basis (i.e., if you are using AXA's technical and technological resources and billing depends on the time spent carrying out the task entrusted to you).

The processing operations presented are those carried out by AXA SA (the parent company) and GIE AXA only, without prejudice to the processing operations carried out by the AXA local entity (e.g., AXA France) with which you are in contact.

UPDATE OF THE PRESENT NOTICE ON THE PROTECTION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

The Data Controllers may update this Information Notice from time to time in response to changing legal, technical, or business developments. When the Data Controllers update this Information Notice, the Data Controllers will take appropriate measures to inform you, consistent with the significance of the changes the Data Controllers make. The Data Controllers will obtain your consent to any material Information Notice changes if and where this is required by applicable data protection laws. This Information Notice was last updated on January 22, 2024.

WHO IS THE DATA CONTROLLER OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

GIE AXA, a European Economic Interest Grouping, organized under French law, with its registered office at 23 Avenue Matignon, 75008 Paris, registered with the Registry of Commerce and Companies of Paris under the number 333 491 066 acts as independent data controller in the context of the processing of your personal data (i.e., it determines the purposes and means of the processing of your information):

In some cases, GIE AXA and AXA SA (excluding its subsidiaries), a Société Anonyme, organized under French law, with its registered office at 25 Avenue Matignon, 75008 Paris, registered with the Registry of Commerce and Companies of Paris under number 572 093 920, act as joint data controllers in the context of the processing of your personal data (i.e., they jointly determine the purposes and means of the processing of your information).

The data controllers are referred to in this Information Notice as "AXA" or "Data Controllers" or "We" or "Us".

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS TO YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

In accordance with the French "Informatique et Libertés" law n° 78-17 of 6 January 1978 and the GDPR, you have the right to:

- Access to your personal data: you have the right to request access to the personal data We process about you, and to obtain a copy of that data,
- Rectify your personal data: you have the right to ask AXA to rectify or complete the personal data that We process about you that are inaccurate, incomplete, or not up to date,
- Request the limitation of the processing of your personal data: you have the right to ask AXA to limit the processing of your personal data. This means that the Data Controllers may simply keep your data but may not process or use it in any other way,
- Decide what happens to your personal data after your death: you have the right to give AXA instructions as to how your personal data should be used after your death.

Based on the legal basis for the processing of your personal data described in the table below, you have also the right to:

- Request the deletion of your personal data: you have the right to ask AXA to delete your personal data, except where the processing is based on the performance of a legal obligation of the Data Controllers,
 - Where the processing of your data is based on AXA's legitimate interest (see table below on how your data is processed), you also have the right to object at any time, but only where the processing of your data is based on the Data Controllers' legitimate interest(s), to the processing of your personal data, unless the Data Controllers can demonstrate the need for further processing or where such data is necessary for the establishment, exercise, or defense of legal claims. Furthermore, information on the balancing test can be obtained on request by contacting the following address: privacy@axa.com

HOW TO CONTACT THE DPO OR EXERCISE YOUR RIGHTS?

If you have any questions, complaints, or comments regarding this Information Notice or to exercise your rights listed above, please contact the DPO. The contact details are as follows: (i) privacy@axa.com and / or (ii) 23 avenue Matignon, 75008, Paris for GIE AXA or 25 avenue Matignon, 75008, Paris for AXA SA.

The Data Controllers may ask you for additional information to confirm your identity and/or to assist AXA to locate the data you are seeking.

HOW TO MAKE A COMPLAINT TO A SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY?

You have the right to raise concerns about how your personal data is being processed with a competent supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of your habitual residence, place of work or place where you think an alleged infringement to your rights occurred.

In France, the data protection authority is the Commission nationale de l'informatique et des libertés, or "CNIL" whose postal address is 3 place de Fontenoy - TSA 80715 - 75334 Paris CEDEX 07. Its website is accessible here: <https://www.cnil.fr/>

HOW DO WE ENSURE THE SECURITY OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

The Data Controllers use appropriate technical and organizational measures designed to protect the personal information about you. The measures the Data Controllers use are designed to provide a level of security appropriate to the risk of the processing activity of your personal information, in line with AXA standards.

IS THE PROVISION OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA MANDATORY?

Whether or not the provision of your personal data to AXA is mandatory will be indicated to you at the time of collection of such data (e.g., by an asterisk on the collection form). If you do not provide AXA with data identified as mandatory, AXA may be unable to enter a contract with you (or to continue the current contractual relationship).

IS AN AUTOMATED DECISION MADE IN THE CONTEXT OF THIS PROCESSING?

No automated decision making is performed for processing described in this Information Notice.

WHERE DOES YOUR PERSONAL DATA COME FROM?

The personal data We process comes either directly from you or from your employer.

TO WHOM DO WE DISCLOSE YOUR PERSONAL DATA?

The Data Controllers communicate your personal data only to identified and authorized recipients which are the following:

Internal

Authorized recipients, within the limits of their respective attributions in relation to the relevant processing:

- Following GIE AXA departments: PBR; Services Supports Department; Group Communication; DSI; Security; Group Compliance; Group Finance; Group Sustainability; Group Audit and Investigation and Group Public Affairs,
- GIE AXA Group Audit department, for the purpose of performing internal audits to ensure the adequacy and effectiveness of internal controls and governance. For this processing, We pursue our legitimate interests to ensure a prudent and transparent management of the company through the evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of the internal control activities. Where relevant, this may include checking controls over transactions or records containing personal data. The processing of your sensitive data is based on your consent, collected by GIE AXA or other AXA local entities (e.g., AXA France) with which you are in contact. Any personal data required to support the audit conclusion is deleted ten (10) years after the closing of the last issue relating to the audit (or after the issuance of the audit report if no issues have been identified), all other personal data is deleted within ten (10) days following completion of the audit,
- Group Risk Management and Group Compliance Departments of GIE AXA, to perform or support local AXA entities in performing the due diligence required to comply with AXA Standards and to document compliance with these Standards through an in-depth review. These departments may be called upon to give a second opinion on a particular case at the request of a local AXA entity and based on data provided by that entity. Your personal data will be kept for a maximum of five (5) years after the end of your employment contract.
 - The legal basis for the processing carried out by the Group Risk Management department is legitimate interest, to ensure compliance with the Standards resulting from Solvency II regulations and issued by the Autorité de contrôle prudentiel et de résolution (ACPR),
 - The legal basis for the processing carried out by Group Compliance department is the AXA Group's legal obligation to comply with the requirements of the French Monetary and Financial Code,
- GIE AXA Group Investigation department, for the purpose of implementing a system for collecting and managing professional alerts. For more information, please refer to the relevant information notice available on axa.com,
- The following AXA local entities: AXA Group Operations entity, for the purpose of managing the hosting and technical support of AXA's storage platform; AXA GO Business Services (India), for the purpose of managing and digitising contracts.

For the reasons mentioned in the table above (purposes), your personal data may be communicated by email between the departments mentioned above. Please note that this information is archived for one (1) year before being permanently deleted:

- Information contained in a deleted email (i.e., moved to the "deleted items" category of the mailbox from the date on which the email is deleted),
- Information contained in the mailbox of an employee or consultant who has left GIE AXA / AXA SA / GIE AXA Université (from the date of his or her departure).

External

- Providers of cloud/data hosting services,
- Providers enabling Us to manage our contracting and accounting process,
- Providers ensuring the security of our premises,
- Providers enabling Us to provide you with working tools,
- Providers to organize events,
- Providers for the certification of the accounts of AXA.

But also:

- Our counsel, including our lawyers, insurers, reinsurers, brokers, auditors, to comply with mandatory legal or regulatory requirements, to audit individual, consolidated accounts, to check conflicts of interest between AXA and other Service Provider's clients and for quality, risk management or financial accounting purposes,
- Any competent authority (including courts, judicial or administrative authorities, ACPR, French tax authorities),
- Any potential buyer or partner, in the case that the Data Controllers take part in a merger, acquisition or other form of asset transfer, they undertake to ensure an adequate level of protection if your personal data is transferred to potential buyers or selected partners in the context of this transaction. Your personal data is deleted six (6) months after its collection.

If you wish to get some details on above-mentioned recipients acting as a processor (i.e., these recipients act on Our instructions only) or controller (i.e., these recipients determine the purposes and means of processing), do not hesitate to contact the Data Privacy team at privacy@axa.com.

IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA TRANSFERRED OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN UNION?

These recipients are located within the European Union (EU).

Some of these recipients are in a country outside the EU which ensures an adequate level of protection (i.e., your personal data is subject to the same level of protection as within the EU):

- Canada (link to the Adequacy decision),
- Japan (link to the Adequacy decision),
- Switzerland (link to the Adequacy decision),
- United-Kingdom (link to the Adequacy decision)
- United-States, for companies participating in the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (link to the Adequacy decision) – the list of these organisations is managed and published by the US Department of Commerce.

Your personal data can also be transferred to the following country which do not provide an adequate level of protection:

- Australia,
- India,
- United-States, for companies who are not participating in the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework.

In this case, the Data Controllers provide safeguards to ensure the security and the confidentiality of your personal data and frames their transfer(s) with the following guarantee:

- (i) By signing, with the recipient of the data, the Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission. You may obtain a copy of the signed Standard Contractual Clauses by requesting it from our DPO, whose contact details are as follows: 23 and/or 25 avenue Matignon, 75008, Paris and/or privacy@axa.com,
- (ii) Or when your personal data is transferred to AXA local entities, with Binding Corporate Rules (<https://www.axa.com/en/about-us/our-commitments> - part Find out more).

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE - AXA GROUP OPERATIONS

As part of our business exchanges, AXA Group Operation is required to collect your Personal Data as external staff¹. Therefore, AXA Group Operations acts as a Data Controller as defined in the 2016/679 General Data Protection Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council² ("GDPR"). In alignment with the latter, AXA Group Operations delivers various services within the AXA Group, which involve the processing of your personal data in a lawful, fair, and transparent manner.

The respect of the confidentiality of your personal data is essential for AXA Group Operations, that is the reason why a Data Privacy team works every day to ensure that your personal data will be processed properly against any unauthorized use or disclosure that would not be authorized.

Your "Personal Data" would be any piece of information identifying you or making you identifiable (through direct and indirect means) such as your first name, last name, professional email address, user ID, among others.

1. Lawfulness of processing

The legal basis of the processing is the legitimate interest of AXA Group Operations, the execution of contractual obligations and the respect of legal obligations.

2. The processing – Why do we need to process your data?

AXA Group Operations needs to collect and process your Personal Data for a variety of different purposes, such as:

Contractual management purposes:

Management, time tracking, payment

AXA Group Operations must enlist you in an organization, a department and a team, under a manager, to calculate the payment for your services.

Security purposes:

Management of the physical security

AXA Group Operations has an obligation to ensure the physical security of all its employees and external staff. It includes the management of access controls to the premises for external staff with badges, management of timetables, the management of video surveillance and physical risks to which anyone on site may be exposed during business trips.

Management of the information security environment with IT tools

AXA Group Operations must take the necessary measures to guarantee the security of the data it has collected to prevent their disclosure to unauthorized third parties. This includes the monitoring and maintenance of computer park, access right management, online and onsite security management, management of electronic messaging systems (emails), prevention and mitigation of threats, monitoring and detection of potential security incident and response capabilities.

For IT purposes (i.e., platform management/reporting/analytics/monitoring):

AXA Group Operations needs to process your Personal Data to grant you the required access to work tools, internal and external applications, and software.

This set of data will be essential as it will allow AXA Group Operations to provide access to a variety of environments, platforms and applications that are necessary and helpful for your role within the organization. Your personal data will also be processed to enable third parties to provide technical support and maintenance and ensure that these tools, applications and software function correctly.

For these purposes (Contractual management, Security, IT purposes), AXA Group Operations might process various categories of personal data. According to the different tool, application and software, AXA Group Operations as Data Controller might process the following categories of personal data among others:

- Data enabling your identification (first name, last name).

¹ External staff means workers who are not employed by AXA GO that have access to AXA GO facilities and/ or AXA GO corporate network access. This could include agency temporary workers, outsourced staff and/ or contractors.

² <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32016R0679>

- Connection data (username, connection logs, work IP address, personal IP address, location data).
- Access control and video surveillance data.

AXA Group Operations in some circumstances may need to process sensitive personal data or access all the file within compromised workstations and other endpoints, if this is the case this will be under strict conditions and access procedure (highly privileged people among entities and CyberDefense, only) and would include either your consent and/or via a dedicated specific notice.

Your personal data are kept only for the time required for the corresponding purposes.

3. Third parties & Protection – What we do with your data

As part of the data-processing, AXA Group Operations may disclose your data to third parties.

These third parties include :

- Entities and companies inside the AXA Group, and their appointed advisors on a need-to-know basis.
- Service providers and vendors duly authorized by AXA Group Operations to process your personal data in accordance with specific agreements, fulfill their legal obligations in accordance with the agreements or with applicable law.
- Competent Local or foreign judicial or regulatory authorities, including financial and tax authorities, for AXA Group Operations to comply with its obligations deriving from laws, regulations, and international treaties and to address official requests or notifications (dependent on the Country the contractual situation takes place).

AXA Group Operation ensure that an adequate level of protection is maintained, in compliance with applicable law on the communication of personal data.

Therefore, third parties that are not located in a country with adequate personal data protection legislation must sign the European Commission "standard contractual clauses", Binding Corporate Rules or any other instrument under the GDPR.

4. Your rights – What you can do with regard to the processing of your data

In accordance with applicable regulations, you have rights in relation to the personal information that AXA retains on your behalf:

- You have the right to know what personal data AXA processes of you, and to obtain a copy of it.
- You have the right to have your personal data corrected, including by providing supplementing information.
- The right to erasure, or your right to object to your data being processed by AXA.
- You have the right to withdraw consent in relation to any data which is processed from a consensual basis.

You may exercise these rights at any time by contacting us (see contacts below).

If you believe, after contacting us, that your data protection rights may have been breached, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority.

5. Contacts
